A Strong Woman

lows City, Iows, Ang 16, 1908
My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and speat much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four hottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and loaded and unloaded all the bay. This madicine gave her strength. Formarly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Oardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOS. A. EISENHAFER.

A FAITHFUL OFFICER.

One of the most unpretending cope that ever wore the star in Reno is Frank Brundage. He will be mad when he sees this item, for he hates notoriety, but this officer is deserving a litthe need of praise accasionally for his faithful work.

He never gets puffs for the arrest of murderers, horse thieves and other of Creceries. big guns in the criminal line. His is a different job. His business is to run in drunken Indiana and quarrelsome hoboes, as well as to keep the tenderloin peaceable and law abiding.

The fact that the town is so clear of disreputables at present is largely due to Brundage's painstaking work

STAR ROUTES IN NEVADA. The Postoffice Department will adtertise for proposals for carrying the mails on all star routes in Ne vada, Utah, Wyoming and other Western States some time in September. These contracts will be for four years, and the contractors will be re-USB quired to live nn or on the vicinity of quirded to live in or on the vicinity of carry the mails. This requirement is to prevent speculation in bidding, by which contractors have been enabled to secure a large number of contracts at a lower figure and sub let which has resulted in deficient service all through the West. Under the new contracts the carriers will be required to deposit mail in boxes of settlers along the routes whenever requested by the settler and a box is erected for such purpose. For this reason and the anti-speculative clause it is expected that the new contracts will be let at advanced rate.
